DAILY DEVOTIONAL

Walk the walk

"God calls for young people with hearts uncorrupted, strong and brave, and determined to fight manfully in the struggle before them, that they may glorify God, and bless humanity. God has given you an opportunity to fill a high destiny." (EGW, Messages to Young People, p. 21)

While at any one point this week we are surrounded by 35,000+ followers of Jesus—I just can't help but ask—are we walking the walk?

As Pathfinders we live by a code of honor that calls us to a higher calling. It's not complicated. You don't have to rescue the entire planet. It's from simple things like looking out for others at Camporee.

Offering to help with preparing the meals each day. Being super kind to others in the line/queue and not jumping ahead. You will be amazed how much the little things mean to others. Just the other day I was with my family getting onto a crowded bus and this dear elderly lady got up from her seat and offered a little boy the option to sit down while she stood. It is always brilliant to see Jesus living through a total stranger.

Think only of today and ask yourself—what will I be like by the end of this day? For some of you this day will be a simple reminder of what you believe and who you are. For others it will be a day of recommitment, and I am sure for some of you the thing you learn will be like a bolt of lightning—giving you a defining moment with God—and you will sense you have found the courage to stand against all odds.

My most memorable moments with God that have helped me to walk the walk have always taken place in community. I look forward to the wonderful journey day-by-day.

May God bless you and keep you,
Japhet De Oliveira
Camporee 2009 Nighttime Director

DRAMA SPOTLIGHT Abigail

Jadanna Huie, 27, hails from the United Kingdom and is currently studying youth leadership and theology at Newbold College. Her initial connection with the CTS Camporee stems back to her time as Japhet De Oliveira's assistant when he was youth director in the U.K. He called her and encouraged her to audition for the Camporee drama. When she was selected to play the role of Abigail it meant she had to quit her job to come to the U.S. for rehearsals. Even though her character doesn't actually exist in the Biblical account of Esther's life, playing the role of Abigail, Esther's closest Jewish childhood friend and confidant, allows us to see another side of the story.

Although Esther's story takes place in an ancient time period, Jadanna believes that the issues today are still the same. How do I show what I believe? Where do I fit in? Her passion for helping others find answers to those important questions has led her to start a youth ministry company, No Labels Academy. She and her business partner are developing workshops and seminars focusing on music, art & design, drama and spiritual skills. They plan to offer them to schools, churches and the community, training teens to lead out as well. Their goal is to understand and accept teens where they are and help them develop a strong foundation in what they believe.

Pathfinder clubs come from all around the world. North American Division clubs support their guests by providing meals and tents, while making new friends and learning of other cultures. Many clubs have to fundraise in order to travel great distances. The following numbers represent some of the accomplishments that happened in getting to Courage to Stand.

Guests travelled thousands of miles— for example:

- Melbourne, Australia 9,668 miles
- Singapore, SF 8,683 miles
- Johannesburg, South Africa 8,685 miles
- Christchurch, New Zealand 8,521 miles
- Mumbai, India 8,047 miles

Conference hosting the most international guests: Ohio Conference: hosting over 180 guests from England.

Club hosting most international guests:

The MacDonald Road Adventist Church's Road Hawks club is hosting 11 from Romania, 46 from Brazil, 15 from Guyana, and one from Mongolia—a total of 73. The Road Hawks from Chattanooga, Tenn. also have the largest single club camped at Oshkosh with 191 all together.

First-ever at Camporee: 1 guest from Mongolia

Furthest camped from the activity area:

Joshua Wildcats, in the Texas Conference of the Southwestern Union.

More than 1,800 guests have joined us from 10 divisions outside of North America:

East Central Africa	27
Euro-Africa	139
Inter-America	895
Northern Asia Pacific	54
South America	181
Southern Africa	50
South Pacific	167
Southern Asia Pacific	61
Southern Asia—India	2

OLDEST & youngest Results

Club Directors

YOUNGEST

- Alex Caldwell, 19, and Justin Setiawan, 19
- Garden Grove Pathfinder Club, Southeastern California Conference
- Alex's second Camporee, Justin's third.
- Left for Oshkosh Thursday, August 6, with 15 Pathfinders. Arrived Monday, August 10.
- Enjoys about Camporee: "Eating. We like to eat," they agree. "And our kids really enjoy playing games and pulling pranks on us."
- Favorite Bible text: Philippians 4:13 because they "like to think we can do anything with God."

- Involved with Pathfinders for 48 years.
- Enjoys about Camporee: "I like everything about young people," he claims. "I really do! I just sit and watch kids and laugh to myself about their antics and their mistakes." He also likes to meet people and has met hundreds in the six Camporees he has attended.
- Even in retirement, Kenneth enjoys Pathfinding the most.
- Favorite Bible text: John 11:35, "Jesus wept." "Because it shows empathy. It's not only about Jesus' empathy, though. It's also about His love."

Youth Directors

YOUNGEST

- Jesse Seibel, 28
- Pastor/Youth Director, Hawaii Conference
- Lives on the island of Oahu with his wife, Shilhi, and two children, Noah and Liya.
- First Camporee
- Enjoys about Camporee: Trading pins. Is "blown away by the amount of people at Oshkosh who have gathered together for a specific purpose."
- Favorite Bible text: John 10:10. "Every kid that I preach to knows that it's my favorite," he laughs. "I use it all the time."

OLDEST

- Allan Williamson, 69
- Southern Union since 1986
- Sixth Camporee, fifth as director
- Enjoys about Camporee: "The campfire programs are always special, and it's a privilege to see people from all over the world and also friends from the past reuniting and refreshing our memories of the things we've done together."
- Considers it a privilege to serve and work with young people, saying, "they keep me young!"
- Favorite Bible text: Philippians 4:13.

Area Coordinators

YOUNGEST

- Misty Rowe, 22
- Alaskan Conference
- Third Camporee
- Attending with seven Pathfinders and three staff members from the Dillingham SDA church.
- They are hosted by the Iowa/Missouri Conference and are very thankful for their help.
- Enjoys about Camporee: Being in an atmosphere where "everybody's excited to meet God and meet new people."
- Her Pathfinders have enjoyed pin trading and checking out the EAA museum and different hangars.
- Favorite Bible text: 1 John 1:9, a verse she learned when she was a fourth grader in Adventurers.

OLDEST

- Kenneth Jerabek, 83
- Rocky Mountain Conference
- Sixth Camporee
- Has served as an area coordinator for approximately 30 years

1. So Toby, you're a new Pathfinder. How are you enjoying it so far?

Toby: Pretty good! I've been trying to get some honors. Some easy, some less easy. I've been working on my grammar a lot, too. Heidi is a speech therapist, and she's been getting mad at me this week.

2. What do you enjoy most about being at Camporee?

Toby: Ooh, I get to wear a uniform sometimes. It makes me look like a general!

3. Can you tell me about your daily routine? What have you been doing every day?

Toby: Hanging out in the buildings, looking at stuff. I've been looking at a lot of the honors, and oh! I tried to do string art. It's not going so well, though. I've been in the class a long time, and I guess I got a little tied up with it.

4. Are you enjoying watching the play every night? What have you been learning about God?

Toby: The play is amazing. But I thought all those people were dead!

Heidi: Toby, they're actors.

Toby: Oh, right. Um, they're doing a great job. I've learned that you can talk to God anytime, and that He always hears you, even when it doesn't seem like it. God always has a way to turn things around.

5. Heidi, how many years have you been involved with Pathfinders?

Toby: 60.

Heidi: No! I've been in Pathfinders for a long time, since I was maybe 8 or 9. This is my fifth Camporee, actually.

6. What do you enjoy most about being at Camporee?

Heidi: Talking, and figuring out where people are from. I like hearing their stories about how they got here. It's also fun to catch up with people that I haven't seen in five years!

7. How have you seen God working during Camporee this week?

Heidi: Well, the stage, for one. A lot of people helped out, and the devil was definitely trying his hardest. On Friday night, there was a huge storm, and the roof for the stage was literally flapping around in the wind! A bunch of props got wet and ruined ... In our minds, though, if the devil is working so hard against us, we must be doing something right. We're obviously doing what God wants.

8. Do you have any words of advice for our campers out there about how they can make the most out of their Camporee experience?

Toby: They HAVE to go see Bongo the puppet and his friend, Puppy, out by the Hangars and the rock wall. Puppy's my favorite!

Heidi: Get involved! Do as much as you can and talk to people you don't know. Also, don't be afraid to get out there. Make pen pals with people from across the world.

Toby: Make PIN pals!

Heidi: Yeah! Or just talk to people, and find out where they're from. We're all here for one purpose.

Question of the Day

What has been your favorite Camporee activity?

Heidi Cardenas, Age 15
San Diego Broadway Pathfinder Club, San Diego, California

"The German...twirly thing, because it was really fun. They spin you up to the top and then they spin you back down to the bottom."

Eugene Dorestal, Age 18
Waldorf Wildcats Pathfinder Club, Waldorf, Maryland

"I went to see a puppet show, and I saw my club during the drumming and marching show. Also, I'm really into pin trading. I got some keepers that I won't trade!"

Jasmin Meadows, Age 19
Duluth Pioneers Pathfinder Club, Duluth, Georgia

"Yesterday we did the ADRA Refugee Simulation. That was pretty cool. They teach you disaster relief."

Thomas Chapman, Age 15
Dakota Meadowlarks Pathfinder Club, Bismarck, North Dakota

"The evening program because I like being there with all of the people and looking out over the crowd to see so many people serving God. I like the play a lot."

Jennifer Liburd, Age 44
Gingerland Pathfinder Club, Nevis, Caribbean (sponsored by the Ajax Pathfinder Club, Ontario, Canada)

"I enjoy doing the honors that I've never done before or had the chance to do back home in my country."

Levi Humbard, Age 10
Joplin Jaguars Pathfinder Club, Joplin, Missouri

"My favorite thing to do is the rock climbing. It's fun to fall backwards and be let down slowly."

Margo Moore, Age 13
Redding Rangers Pathfinder Club, Redding, California

"I like the pin trading because you can trade back and forth with people and get pins that you don't already have."

Donovan Navarret, Age 18
Miami Central Spanish Pathfinder Club, Miami, Florida

"I like the sports, especially basketball, because I like sports a lot and you get to meet new people."

Ruth Nyabuto-kerongo, Age 7
Kenyan Community Church Pathfinder Club, Brooklyn Center, Minnesota

"I like going to all the activities. My most favorite is...I can't decide! There's a lot that I like. I want to try the German Swirl."

Diane Southcott, Age 50
Parkland Pathfinder Club, Alberta, Canada

"I'm surprised at how much I like pin trading. I thought I would come and maybe trade a little, but I've really gotten into it."

Chase Buchanan, Age 7
New Life Pioneers Pathfinder Club, Houston, Texas

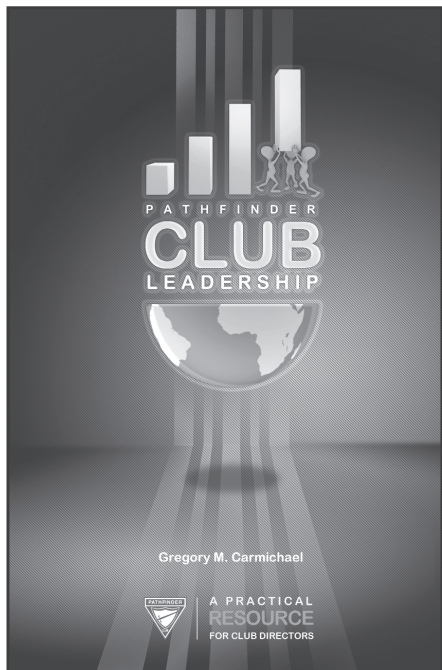

"I like playing games because it's fun and a really good time."

Skip Hann, Age 57 (as of yesterday! Happy Birthday, Mr. Hann!)
Recruiter from Great Lakes Adventist Academy, Cedar Lake, Michigan

"My favorite thing has been going around and seeing all of the different campsites and chatting with people from different cultures. My main favorite activity is spreading the Word of God."

Pathfinders Clubs Work Together to Receive Honors

"God is here, God is here," says Alvina Cook, a volunteer staff from Minnesota. Alvina has been spending her week in Hangar D helping Pathfinders obtain their scrap-booking honor. On Wednesday, August 12, she was struck by the kindness of the Guerros PF Club from Houston, Texas, towards the Cruzeiro Do Sal PF Club from Brasilia, Brazil.

"The Brazilian club was interested in scrap-booking," says Alvina. "But they needed an interpreter because none of us [volunteers] speak Portuguese. When the Texan club walked in, we found out they had someone who spoke Portuguese and was willing to translate."

Each club had seven Pathfinders, so the groups rearranged their schedules and agreed to meet at the scrap-booking section at the same time. Together, they've been working towards their honors.

"I was so touched that the [Guerros] club was so willing to help," says Alvina. "They were doing what Pathfinders should be doing. It really touched my heart."

"Miracle Man" Survives Car Accident

It was just another August day for 20-year old Alex Briceno from the Westminster Good Samaritan Church in California. He was doing his job working as a driver and delivery man for a plumbing company when disaster suddenly struck.

The Briceno family is still unsure of exactly what happened. It is speculated that as Alex was on a ramp changing from one freeway to another, he came to a sharp turn and lost control. The vehicle rolled into a ravine and was stopped by a tree from hurling into oncoming traffic. The entire passenger side was instantly destroyed, as well as the front. Oddly enough, every seat in the vehicle was crushed, except for Alex's.

Alex was rushed to the Los Angeles USC hospital. His family, who had been panicking all afternoon about their missing son/brother, was called later that evening and arrived to see him hooked up to countless tubes with cuts, bruises and scrapes covering his entire body. His jaw was broken, and his clavicle and AC joint were dislocated.

"There was so much trauma to his brain. They told me he wasn't going to make it," says Rose Briceno, Alex's mother. "The doctor told me, 'I hope the best for your family, but he's done.'"

Alex remained in a coma for nearly four weeks, his family by his side and their church in constant prayer. He had been moved to a different facility by this time and if he ever did fully awaken, was expected to remain in an "infant" stage for the time being. Some of his first words were, "Mom! Dad!" and "God!"

During this time, Alex's family encountered several other families and individuals in need of their faith and prayer. Alex's father talked with gang members in the hospital whose friend had been killed. He prayed with them, and helped to prevent a revenge murder from occurring. Rose also had several opportunities to pray with hurting families and friends, changing countless lives as well as transforming her own.

Just three months after the accident, Alex was walking and talking on his own. On November 26, 2008, he was sent home for good.

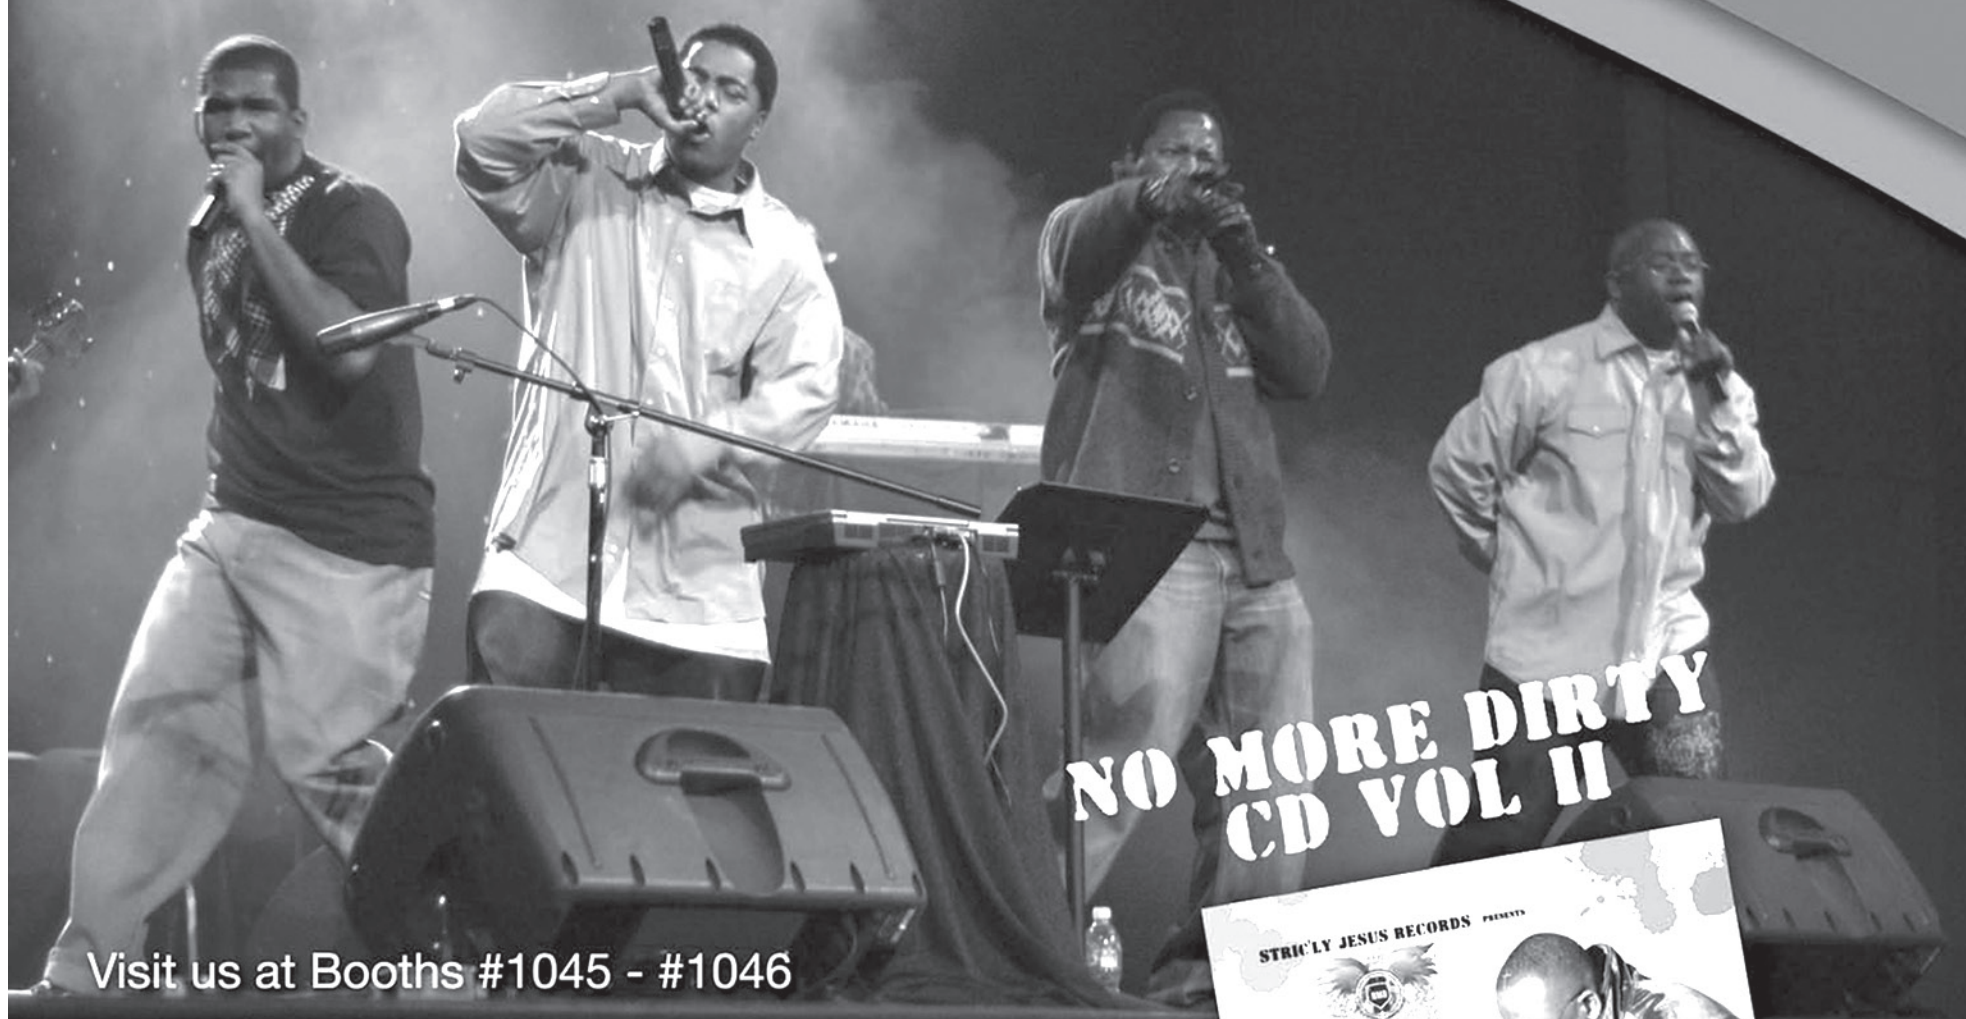

"I've been blessed through everything," he claims. "Hospital trauma, rehab, therapy...and I had the best family through it all. I plan on going home and getting 100% better, and if I don't, I know it's because God works on His own time, not mine."

"The day I saw my son in that hospital," says Rose, "I knew I had to give him up. There was nothing I could do for him. I had to hand him over to God. I lost my son that day."

Alex was recently baptized and plans to tell his testimony to the new friends he's been making at camp this week.

"If anyone wants to see an actual miracle, come find me!" he says. "I'll be wearing my white and red USMC hat!"

We stand corrected!

The answers to questions 3 and 4 in yesterday's Pathfinder Trivia were incorrect. The officially recognized Pathfinder organization was established by the General Conference in 1950, not 1907, and the current worldwide Pathfinder leader is Jonatan Tejel, not Bob Holbrook.

twisters

Tongue Twisters—These tricky tongue twisters trip thrillingly off the tongue!

- A quick-witted cricket critic.
- White eraser? Right away, sir!
- He threw three free throws.
- Which wristwatches are Swiss wristwatches?
- If Stu chews shoes, should Stu choose the shoes he chews?
- She sifted thistles through her thistle-sifter.
- Fred fed Ted bread, and Ted fed Fred bread.
- Swan swam over the sea. Swim, Swan, swim! Swan swam back again. Well swum, Swan!
- Lesser leather never weathered wetter weather better.
- While we were walking, we were watching window washers wash Washington's windows with warm washing water.

Be Trashy!

See how much trash your club can pick up and be recognized as the "trashiest" club at Oshkosh. God doesn't create garbage, so let's pick it up. Photographic evidence of your club displaying the trash collected is required. Please bring photos to the On-site Communication Trailer by 1 p.m. on Friday, August 14.

The winning group will have their photo displayed in the final issue of Pathfinder Today and receive a $50 Culver's gift certificate.
